[NUMB. 1546.]

South-Carolina GAZETTE.

From SATURDAY March 3, to SATURDAY March 10, 1764

Charles-Town, March 3d, 1764.

THE Printer of this Gazette, having carried on his business to great disadvantage for some time past, for want of A PROPER ASSISTANT, which has not only prevented him collecting his dues, but also occasioned irregular publications; his stock of paper for the ensuing being exhausted; and being determined to have all his affairs settled by the 1st of July next;

THINKS this the fittest opportunity to take, and make known to the public, a resolution to discontinue the publication of this paper from the 1st of April (to which day his books will be closed) to the 1st of July next.

AND, as this resolution is taken purposely to settle his affairs, and to enable him to carry on his business on a more extensive and useful plan for the future; he entreats all persons indebted to him, to discharge what they so owe, or at least settle with him, by the first day of June; which he hopes they will do without requiring any other notice, especially those who have been an immoderate time in arrear.

At the same time, as he has the most grateful sense of every favour that has been conferred upon him, he takes this public method of returning his most hearty thanks to all his friends and good customers, for the countenance and support they have afforded him through the course of twenty-five years that the business has been conducted here in his name; a continuance of which it shall always be his study to deserve.

Such of his friends as may be disposed to take in this Gazette again, from the 1st of July next, will please signify the same to him before the 1st of June (as none on his old list will be supplied without particular orders) when he hopes to be provided with a good assistant, and amply supplied with every requisite for carrying on his business with more regularity and to more general satisfaction than hitherto; to effect which no pains or cost will be spared.

Timely notice will be given, by whom new subscriptions for this paper are to be taken in, in different parts of the province; and country subscribers (first paying up their arrears) may depend on having their papers conveyed to them in the most expeditious manner.

N.B. The Gazette is the only part of the business that will be discontinued during the interval aforesaid: All other kinds of PRINTING WORK will be taken in and done, and BLANKS sold — as usual.
